

Client Identification Form

Open Door Law's Client Identification intake form will be used to check for conflicts and comply with the Law Society of British Columbia's identification requirements. By completing this form in advance, we can spend more time focusing on the issue that you wish to consult us about. Submission of this form will help us assess your matter and whether we can help you and it should not be inferred that a lawyer client relationship is formed until we confirm this with you.

Please note that as we are BC lawyers, we assume that your matter relates to a matter within BC which we are qualified to provide advice on. We reserve the right to request additional information from you either before or during our meeting.
